TED TURNER

PRESIDENT

R.E. "Ted" Turner has often been described as a "modern day hero among today's masses." It's not a tag he has intentionally received, but one that came about because of the popularity he earned through his bold and successful communications and sports acquisitions.

A television magnate and sportsman, Turner has combined his interest in the two to expand "a small UHF television station" into the most watched single channel throughout the United States. WTBS, channel 17 in Atlanta, is known as "The SuperStation" to cable watchers around the country. And the Atlanta Braves have become known as "America's Team" among their fans in all 50 states.

The dynamic Turner became owner of the Braves on Jan. 14, 1976 when National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta-LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Corporation, now called Turner Broadcasting System.

Turner completely rebuilt a yearly also-ran into a club which won a division championship for the first time in 13 years in 1982, and is talented and youthful enough to be considered a serious contender for years to come. He is not an owner afraid to spend money to satisfy his players or improve his team. Current pitchers Terry Forster and Pete Falcone and outfielder Claudell Washington were signed as free agents and in the past Turner acquired such players as Andy Messersmith, Gary Matthews, Al Hrabosky, Mike Lum, and Gaylord Perry through free agency. In addition, the Braves under Turner have produced such players as Dale Murphy, Glenn Hubbard, Rafael Ramirez and Steve Bedrosian through an improved farm system. By adding quality instructors for each facet of the game at every stop in the Braves' minor league chain the Atlanta farm system has become one of the most productive in baseball.

Turner has become a household word in the world of sports not only through his ownership of the Braves and basketball Hawks, but also because of his considerable achievements as a yachtsman.

Turner's most notable deed as a participant came in 1977 when he skippered "Courageous" to victory in the prestigious America's Cup races. He was named Yachtsman of the Year for the third time by the New York Yacht Club on the strength of those wins. He also won the award a fourth time, in 1978.

It is in the field of television where Turner has almost revolutionized the industry. His "SuperStation," which resulted from a bold move by Turner, now reaches 50 states, Puerto Rico and a Caribbean circuit. WTBS is carried into about 31 million homes, over one-third of the nation's total of 83 million TV households. On June 1, 1980, Turner started Cable News Network, the first 24-hour all news television station. CNN reaches over 26 million homes in 50 states and the Virgin Islands. A third Turner broadcasting system, CNN Headline News, made its debut on Dec. 31, 1981, at 11:45 p.m. CNN Headline Service is a national, 24-hour, fast-paced news network operating in 30-minute cycles which reaches into over nine million homes throughout the U.S. Additionally, Turner is forging ahead in the telecommunications industry with his own original programming. Turner Broadcasting System is pioneering made-for-cable features including "Portrait of America", a five-year series of documentaries profiling each of the 50 states, and Jacques Cousteau specials.

Turner was born in Cincinnati, O., on Nov. 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

He began his business career as an account executive for Turner Advertising Company in Savannah, Ga. He became general manager of Turner Advertising in Macon, Ga., in 1960, at the age of 22 and in 1963, became president and chief executive officer of the various Turner companies with offices in Atlanta.

In 1970 Turner Communications Corporation merged with Rice Broadcasting, with Turner becoming general manager of the flagship station, WTCG (now WTBS), in Atlanta.

The Federal Communications Commission approved use of a satellite system in 1976 which allowed Turner Communications to beam WTBS's signal across the United States.

Turner is a member of the Atlanta Advertising Club, the Atlanta Yacht Club, and the Capital City Club.

Turner and his wife, the former Jane Shirley Smith of Birmingham, Ala., have homes in Roswell, Georgia and South Carolina. They have five children, Laura Lee, R.E. Turner, IV, Rhett, Beau and Jean.

BILL BARTHOLOMAY

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Bill Bartholomay has been involved with the Braves as a director or owner for over 20 years. He purchased the Braves with a group in Nov., 1962 and served as Chairman of the then Milwaukee Braves. Bill was highly instrumental in bringing the club to Atlanta. Prior to his involvement with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

One of Bill's most popular moves as an owner of the Braves was to sign an aged Satchel Paige to a contract in 1968 so he could accumulate enough time to qualify for pension. According to Bartholomay it was brought to his attention that Satchel Paige, "perhaps the greatest pitcher in the history of baseball, had been prevented for the bulk of his career, because of the color barrier, from playing in major league baseball. He had therefore not accumulated enough time to qualify for the pension...We made room on our roster to sign him on even though his age was well over sixty, which made him the oldest player ever to sign a major league contract."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many other hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of the Board and Chairman of the Executive Committee of Frank B. Hall & Co. Inc., one of the largest international insurance brokerage firms.

AL THORNWELL

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Al Thornwell helped get the Braves to championship caliber in a hurry. The Braves won the National League West in 1982, Thornwell's third year as the club's top operating officer. And in 1983 the Braves, under his direction, drew an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 marking back-to-back record-breaking attendance years.

Thornwell became Executive Vice President of the Braves Feb. 6, 1980. The Atlanta native oversees all operating procedures of the team and represents the Braves at National League and major league meetings.

In addition to his duties with the Braves, the longtime Georgia businessman is also president and treasurer of Elliott's Container Service, Inc., of Augusta, Ga.

He sits on several boards of directors, including Turner Broadcasting System, whose Atlanta-based WTBS televises Braves games into 50 states. He also is a member of the TBS Audit Committee. Al has served on the Braves Board of Directors since Ted Turner purchased the team prior to the 1976 season and currently is Corporate Secretary of the Braves.

Thornwell was Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of the Atlanta Chiefs Soccer Club which, under his direction, won the Eastern Division title of the NASL indoor season in 1979-80.

He is President of the Stadium Club in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium and is active in numerous civic, charitable and community organizations. The Braves' Executive Vice President is a lawyer by education but has not been involved in actual practice.

JOHN MULLEN

GENERAL MANAGER

John Mullen has orchestrated player movements which helped make yearly contenders of the Braves and brought the National League West Division championship to Atlanta in 1982. During the 1982 season Mullen traded for Bob Watson and Pascual Perez, two players instrumental in the club's stretch drive for the division title. Foremost among John's trade acquisitions are first baseman Chris Chambliss, obtained from Toronto during the 1979 baseball winter meetings, and pitcher Terry Forster, signed as a free agent in Dec., 1982.

When John became General Manager of the Atlanta Braves in May, 1979, it was a homecoming of sorts. His career in baseball began with the organization when it was based in Boston some 37 years ago. In fact, Mullen, and broadcaster Ernie Johnson, are the only current members of the organization who have served the Braves when the club was based in Boston, Milwaukee and Atlanta.

John came back to the Braves from Houston, where he was Assistant to the General Manager. Upon accepting the Braves' General Manager's post, a position vacant because of the death of Bill Lucas, John said, "My family and I hate to leave Houston, but I can't pass up the chance to become a major league G.M., especially when the team concerned is the Braves."

John's original tenure with the Braves began in Jan. 1947 after having taken a part-time position the previous month. He was Assistant Farm Director until May, 1953 when he became Farm Director for the franchise, which had vacated Boston for Milwaukee. During his years as Farm Director until 1966, John is credited with having signed many Braves players who developed into World Champions in 1957, National League pennant winners in 1958, and division winners in 1969. Some players signed under his direction include Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews (both Hall of Famers), Phil Niekro, Johnny Logan, Del Crandall, Lee Maye and Mike Lum.

John left the Braves in Sept. 1966, when he went to work for the Houston Astros as assistant to Director of Player Personnel and Manager Grady Hatton. At mid-season, he became the Assistant to the General Manager, the position he held until returning to the Braves in 1979.

Upon return to his original organization, John has maintained the Atlanta Braves' philosophy of developing from within by having a strong minor league organization. This is a philosophy that has been adhered to since his previous years with the Braves. "Baseball has changed greatly because of escalating salaries and long term no-trade contracts," Mullen says. "But signing and developing your own players is still the best avenue for success. Trading has become less and less important." Nevertheless, John has been able to make the player movements necessary to help make the Braves a winner and keep them there.

John's baseball background gives him years of experience in analyzing talent. In previous years with the Braves he oversaw the signing and development of players who worked their way up to the major leagues. While with Houston, Mullen spent most of his time scouting players in the American and National Leagues with the purpose of judging major league talent to assist in trading. It is this development of baseball savvy which makes John so valuable to the Braves organization.

Mullen served four years in the U.S. Coast Guard during World War II. He and his wife Claire have a daughter, Kathleen, and two sons, Christopher and Richard. In his leisure time, John is a noted tenor.

HENRY AARON DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Hank Aaron, elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January, 1982, is in his eighth year as Director of Player Development for the Atlanta Braves.

The greatest home run hitter of all time missed by just nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Willie Mays, who got 409 votes in 1979, received more votes in the annual election, and only Ty Cobb, who received 98.2 percent of the vote in the first balloting in 1936, received a higher percentage. Aaron, along with Frank Robinson, was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on Aug. 1, 1982.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office when he was named to his current post of Vice President and Director of Player Development by club president Ted Turner on October 7, 1976. Hank ended his playing career as one of the game's immortals with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1976.

In the past eight years Aaron has overseen the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship. Dale Murphy, the Braves' first N.L. MVP since Aaron himself won the award in 1957, Glenn Hubbard, Rafael Ramirez, Steve Bedrosian and Terry Harper are just a few of the current Braves who came up through Atlanta's farm system under Aaron's direction. The current Braves' roster has one of the highest percentages of "home grown talent" in baseball.

In his 23-year major league career Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more major league batting records than any other player in the game's history. Included in his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Games, Lifetime, 3,298; Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Plate Appearances, Lifetime, 13,940; Most At-Bats, Lifetime, 12,364; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755.

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974 when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before 53,775 against the Dodgers' Al Downing. This year marks the 10th anniversary of that great moment.

On May 17, 1970, Hank became the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He is one of six players to ever hit more than 30 homers and steal more than 30 bases in a season, doing it in 1963.

Hank played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963.

He played 21 of his 23 seasons with the Braves and was traded to the Milwaukee Brewers for outfielder Dave May and minor league pitcher Roger Alexander at the end of the 1974 season.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank, Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Lary was a minor league outfielder for the Braves.

JOE TORRE

MANAGER NO. 9

Joseph Paul Torre. Born July 18, 1940, at Brooklyn, N.Y. 6-1, 200. Graduated from St. Francis Prep School, Brooklyn, N.Y., 1958. Lives in Marietta, Ga.

In two seasons at the helm of Braves, manager Joe Torre has given Atlanta first and second place finishes in the National League West. Both years the Braves entered the last weekend of the season fighting for first place. In 1982 they clinched the division pennant on the final day of the season and last year the Braves were eliminated with only two games to go. Only one other manager, Luman Harris in 1969, has brought the Braves home first and no one except Torre has a second place finish in the club's 18 years in Atlanta. The turnaround was dramatic, as the Braves had finished last four of six seasons prior to his taking over, Oct. 23, 1981. Torre, in two seasons, has a winning percentage of .546, tops among Atlanta's eight full-time managers.

When Torre became skipper of the Braves, it was a return to the organization which launched his professional career in 1960, spending time in between at St. Louis, where he won a National League batting title, and the New York Mets, for whom he played and later managed.

Torre broke into the majors with the Milwaukee Braves in 1960 and finished second to Billy Williams in N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting in 1961 after batting .278 his first full season. . . . When the Braves made their move to Atlanta, Torre introduced himself to Atlanta fans in a big way. On opening night in 1966 he connected for a long homer off Pittsburgh Pirates lefthander Bob Veale to become the first Atlanta Brave to hit one for the distance in championship competition. The power-hitting catcher ended the season with 36 home runs, the top one-season mark of his career.

The Braves traded Torre to the St. Louis Cardinals on March 17, 1969, getting first baseman Orlando Cepeda in return. It was at St. Louis where Torre went on his celebrated diet and went on to win a batting championship in addition to playing solid first and third base for a club which had Tim McCarver and later Ted Simmons behind the plate. Torre won the batting crown with a .363 average in 1971 and also led the N.L. with 230 hits and 137 RBIs. All three figures were personal season highs for Torre.

The Cardinals traded Torre to the New York Mets on Oct. 13, 1974 for Ray Sadecki and Tommy Moore. Joe was named the Mets' player-manager on May 31, 1977, replacing Joe Frazier. He became the first player-manager in the National League since Solly Hemus directed the Cardinals in 1959. Joe took himself off New York's active roster on June 18, 1977.

Joe batted .297 during his 18-year major league career. He finished with 2,342 hits and 1,185 RBIs, placing him 69th and 55th, respectively, on the all-time lists. The last of Torre's 252 lifetime home runs came as a pinch-hitter against St. Louis' Clay Carroll on April 13, 1977. Torre's honors as a player were many after he began his professional career in Eau Claire in 1960. He played in eight All-Star games, was named to The Sporting News post-season all-star squad on five occasions and gained his greatest honor as a player in 1971 when he was named the National League's Most Valuable Player.

In his first year as manager of the Braves Torre earned wide acclaim by leading the club to its first division title in 13 years after taking over a club which had finished fifth the year before. He was named the Associated Press Manager of the Year for his achievement. The 89 games won by the Braves in 1982 is second only to the total of 93 in 1969 in the 18 seasons the club has resided in Atlanta.

Upon winning the Manager of the Year Award Torre said, "This has to compare with winning the 1971 Most Valuable Player Award, but I like this one a little better because we finished first. When I won the MVP, we finished second." Torre is the first to be named both the N.L.'s MVP by the Baseball Writers Association of America and the N.L.'s top manager by the Associated Press.

Torre is known as a hard-nose "leader" type who has always had the respect of his peers. He possesses an even temper and a keen sense of humor which is often revealed at delicate times. Such was the case on July 21, 1975, when the burly righthander grounded into a record-tying four double plays. "I couldn't have done it," deadpanned Torre after the game, "without the help of Felix Millan." (Millan was one base each time ahead of Torre.)

ROBERT GIBSON

COACH NO. 45

Robert Gibson. Born Nov. 9, 1935 at Omaha, Neb. 6-1½. 198. Graduated from Omaha Technical High School, attended Creighton University, Omaha, Neb. Married Wendy Nelson, has two daughters, Rene and Annette. Lives in Bellevue, Neb.

Bob, one of baseball's all-time hard throwers, is an Atlanta pitching coach along with Rube Walker for the third consecutive season in 1984. Highly thought of by manager Joe Torre for competitive nature. When Torre was asked why he has two pitching coaches he replied, "I have Rube to teach the pitchers to pitch and Gibby to teach 'em to win." Torre also says 'Gibby had the killer instinct. If he got past the seventh inning with a one-run lead, well, he was like a lot of other pitchers with a 10-run lead."

The former St. Louis Cardinal teammates remain good friends and usually kill spare time before games playing cribbage.

Gibson had a sterling major league pitching career and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in 1981. Was only the 11th player to be named to the Hall on his first try as he gathered 337 of 401 possible votes.

A six-time All-Star selection and the N.L.'s MVP in 1968, Bob established numerous pitching records during his career. His 3,117 strikeouts led National League pitchers until surpassed by Steve Carlton in 1981 and Tom Seaver in 1982. Prior to 1983 campaign ranked sixth all-time in K's on the major league list.... His 1.12 ERA in 1968, when he went 22-9 while pitching 305 innings, established a major league mark for the lowest ERA for a 300-inning season. Won the Cy Young award that year and again in 1970. ... Led the Cardinals to World Series titles in 1964 and 1967, winning Series' MVP each year. Struck out 17 Detroit Tigers to set a World Series record in 1968. ... In 17 big league seasons pitched a no-hitter (Aug. 14, 1971 vs. Pittsburgh), two one-hitters and eight two-hitters.

Attended Creighton University on a basketball scholarship and went on to play with the Harlem Globetrotters in 1957-58. ... Is owner of "Bob Gibson's Restaurant" in Omaha and chairman of a bank. Did color commentary on WTBS-TV college basketball schedule during 1982-83 season.

STEVE BEDROSIAN

P NO. 32

Stephen Wayne Bedrosian. Born Dec. 6, 1957, at Methuen, Mass. Bats, throws right. 6-3, 195. Graduated from Methuen High School, 1975. Attended North Essex Community College, Haverhill, Mass. and University of New Haven, West Haven, Conn. Single. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired — Signed after selection in third round of June, 1978 free agent draft by Bob Turzilli.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 2 years, 53 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 1 year, thru 1984.

1983 SEASON: Flame-throwing Steve Bedrosian was the mainstay of the Atlanta bullpen in 1983, particularly after the injury to Gene Garber. He ranked eighth in the N.L. in saves and sixth in appearances. In competition for the prestigious "Fireman of the Year" award (one point awarded for each win and save) Steve tied for sixth with Montreal's Jeff Reardon. Had excellent ratios of 14 strikeouts and 100 hits for his 120 innings. His 70 appearances are third highest ever for an Atlanta pitcher in a single season, behind Rick Camp (77) and Clay Carroll (73).

Steve saved five games versus Montreal in 1983 and three each against Chicago and Los Angeles. He also sported a 2-0 record and 0.63 ERA versus the Dodgers. Bedrosian was practically unhittable during two stretches of '83. From June 5-17 he appeared in seven games during which he allowed no earned runs in 7-2/3 innings. He struck out 10 while allowing four hits and one walk in that span. From July 26 thru Aug. 7 he was unscored upon in six appearances covering 13-2/3 innings. He gave up only four hits in that stretch. Opponents batted only .228 against Bedrosian, including .215 on the road and .254 at home. Made only start of 1983 in his last outing. He pitched seven strong innings at San Diego, giving up just one run, on a homer by Luis Salazar, and striking out eight. He did not receive the decision as the Braves lost in 10 innings, 4-3.

CAREER: Bedrosian ranks fourth on the all-time Atlanta list with 30 saves. . . He joined Atlanta on August 31, 1981, after compiling sterling minor league credentials. . . Ironically, he made just one relief appearance before coming to big leagues. Had five shutouts in 81 career minor league starts. . . Received first big league win in second game after appearing in relief against Los Angeles, Aug. 15. . . Later rattled off nine consecutive relief appearances without allowing a run. That sealed his fate as a bullpen workhorse.

In 1982 Steve combined with Gene Garber to give the Braves baseball's top bullpen and was named National League Rookie Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News. The Braves were awarded the Rolands Relief Man Award for having the top team bullpen in the majors. Bedrosian was second to Garber among Braves in saves (11) and appearances (64) that year. He led N.L. relievers with 112 strikeouts. He began the season as a spot starter and middle reliever and helped pitch a combined shutout on April 30 versus Chicago when he allowed just four hits over the first seven innings. Steve's first major league save came at New York on June 2 when he struck out the only batter he faced. . . A 27-inning scoreless streak from June 26 thru July 27 tied the N.L. high for 1982. He allowed just eight hits in that 10-game span. . . Blazing fastball has been clocked at 95 m.p.h.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Nickname is Bedrock.

BRUCE BENEDICT

C NO. 20

Bruce Edwin Benedict. Born Aug. 18, 1955 at Birmingham, Ala. Bats, throws right. 6-1, 185. Graduated from Millard, Neb., High School, 1973. Attended U. of Nebraska at Omaha, in Omaha. Acquired — Signed after selection in fifth round of 1976 June draft by Al LaMacchia.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 5 years, 47 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 3 years, thru 1985.

1983 SEASON: Bruce became a pleasant surprise at the plate for the Braves in 1983 when he batted a career high .298. Except for a period from May 31 thru June 30 he hit .314. Bruce was batting .338 when he was hit by a foul tip and had to be removed from the game of May 31. He then hit .330 after June 30. . . Bruce also hit well with runners in scoring position, .330. . . Versus right-handed pitching he hit .291 and against lefthanders, .314. At home he averaged .338. . . Bruce set career highs in games (134), runs (43), hits (126) and walks (61) as well as average. . . Bruce's 13-game hitting streak (Aug. 10-28) tied Glenn Hubbard for high on the Braves in 1983 and was the longest of his career. He hit .439 (18-for-41) during the streak.

Benedict spaced almost the whole 1983 season between his two homers, both of which came against San Diego. He hit his first off John Montefusco on April 9 and waited until the second to the last day of the season for his next which came against Dennis Rasmussen. . . As usual Bruce also excelled defensively. Among regular catchers he tied for second in fielding percentage with Tony Pena (.992) behind Gary Carter. Benedict also had only four passed balls, remarkable considering he usually caught knuckleballer Phil Niekro. Was named to the N.L. all-star squad for the second time in 1983.

CAREER: First big league hit came on first day in major leagues, Aug. 18, 1978. Bruce's 23rd birthday. . . Hit his first career grand slam at Philadelphia, Aug. 31, 1981 and second off L.A.'s Fernando Valenzuela, Sept. 9, 1982. . . Four of Benedict's 12 career homers have come off San Francisco pitching. He had a two-homer game vs. the Giants, April 25, 1981. . . Bruce caught fire with the bat the last month of the 1982 season to help propel the Braves to West Division Championship. He hit .389 from Aug. 23 to the end of the regular season. . . Led N.L. catchers with his .993 fielding percentage that year. . . A good all round catcher with a strong accurate throwing arm, Benedict is annually among baseball's best at throwing out would-be base stealers. . . Has shown continued improvement throughout career, attributed to off-season weight program.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Father played pro ball with Yankees and Cardinals farm teams. . . Bruce was named Male Athlete of the Year at University of Omaha in 1975, where he was named to the Division II, District all-American team. . . Favorite book is "Greatest Miracle in the World".

RICK CAMP

P NO. 37

Rick Lamar Camp. Born June 10, 1953, at Trion, Ga. Bats, throws right. 6-1, 198. Graduated from Trion High School, 1971. Attended West Georgia College, Carrollton, Ga. Married Debbie Hider, has one son, Richard Ross. Lives in Trion.

Acquired — Signed after selection in 6th round of 1974 June draft by Red Wooten.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 6 years, 25 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 6 years, including 3 year extension, thru 1986.

1983 SEASON: Although finishing fourth among the Braves in wins and in ERA (100 innings), Rick Camp had a disappointing season in 1983. He showed only glimpses of being the pitcher who was one of the N.L.'s premier relievers in 1980-81 when he recorded 39 saves. He began the season a starter, and was on top of his game in the early going. Rick won three of his first four starts and was 3-0 at one point. His only complete game was a 9-2 win over San Diego on April 19. Then hard times began as he lost his next four decisions. Rick won two consecutive starts in late May and early June, but three more losses relegated him to the bullpen for most of the season after mid-June, even though he won five of his last seven decisions.... Following the season Camp went to the Braves' instructional camp at Bradenton, Fla., where he discovered flaws in his pitching mechanics.

CAREER: Has a career mark of 28-14 at home but only 16-23 on the road. . . Was named N.L.'s Co-Pitcher of the Month for August, 1981, with the Giants' Ed Whitson. Was Player of the Week in the N.L. for June 1-7, 1981 and Co-Player of the Week with New York's Neil Allen for Aug. 17-23, 1981. . . His 1.78 ERA led National League relievers in 1981 and his nine wins tied for the lead among relief pitchers. Rick finished second by just two points to the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter for the N.L.'s Roland's Relief Man award (two points for a win or save and a minus point for each loss). Additionally, Rick exhibited extraordinary control by allowing just 1.42 walks per nine innings that year. . . He had a streak of 25 scoreless innings from May 17 thru Aug. 19, 1981. . . Made the conversion to starter after struggling in the bullpen in early 1982. On June 13, 1982 at S.F. Rick made his first start since 1978 and only his sixth in the big leagues. He allowed just one run in 5 2/3 innings. . . Was nominated for another start on June 27 at Cincinnati. Pitched well, but did not receive the decision when Atlanta won 2-0 in 14 innings. Braves tied a major league record by turning seven double plays in the game. . . Braves were 5-0 in Camp's first five starts in 1982. . . He later pitched his first major league complete game at Chicago, on July 18, a six-hitter.

Camp has been no stranger to adversity in his career. The Trion, Ga., native began an earlier comeback from arm trouble by making the squad as a non-roster invitee at the Braves' 1980 spring training camp. Was originally slated to begin the season at AAA Richmond but was placed on roster when then-manager Bob Cox decided to go with a 10-man pitching staff. A late season headline in 1981 which read "'Washed-Up' Camp Braves' Bullpen Ace" and nominations for comeback player of the year showed the dramatic turnaround by the righthander. . . Rick's 77 relief appearances that year broke Clay Carroll's Braves record of 73 appearances set in 1966. Rick was the N.L.'s Player of the Week in the N.L. for his performance from Sept. 22-28, 1980, when he allowed no baserunners in the three games and recorded three saves. . . Rick earned his way on Braves pitching staff in 1977 with a sensational spring. However, his spot on the roster was taken on Opening Day by Andy Messersmith, signed as a free agent.

PERSONAL/MISC.: A native Georgian, Camp was an all-state football player at Trion High School and had college offers. . . Helped save the life of a companion during a boating mishap in the winter of 1977-78 when a boat overturned in the Coosa River. Rick jumped into freezing water to pull companion to safety. . . He is an avid fisherman and hunter.

CHRIS CHAMBLISS

INF NO. 10

Carroll Christopher Chambliss. Born Dec. 26, 1948, at Dayton, Ohio. Bats left, throws right. 6-1. 221. Graduated from Oceanside (Calif.) High School and Mira Costa Junior College (Calif.). Attended UCLA. Graduated from Montclair State. Married Audra Garvin, has two children, Russell C. and Denair Johnson. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired — Obtained with Luis Gomez in trade with Toronto for Joey McLaughlin, Barry Bonnell and Pat Rockett, Dec. 6, 1979.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 12 years, 127 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 5 years, thru 1986.

1983 SEASON: Chris was having his best all-around season until sidelined for 15 days on Aug. 8 because of a pulled muscle in his side. It was the first time in his career Chambliss was placed on the disabled list. Nevertheless, Chris hit 20 homers for the second time in his career and finished in a tie for second on the Braves with 78 RBIs. His 63 walks established a career high. Batted .280 in 1983 to equal his career average. . . . Defensively Chris had another fine season. He committed just five errors and finished a narrow second to Dan Driessen among N.L. first basemen in fielding percentage, .9957 to .9959. Chambliss's mark was just .001 off the all-time Braves' record he already shares with Walter Holke and Joe Adcock. . . . Was named the N.L.'s Player of the Week for July 4-10 when he batted .471 with two homers and eight RBIs.

Chambliss had three two-homer games in 1983: April 13 and Sept. 21 vs. the Reds and July 8 in Montreal. . . . He batted in five runs vs. St. Louis on June 2 with the help of his fifth career grand slam (second as a Brave). . . . Chambliss also excelled as a pinch-hitter; he batted .625 with five hits and six RBIs. . . . He had two 12-game hitting streaks, the first in April and the second in July. . . . At home in 1983 Chambliss batted .307. He had five homers each off Cincinnati and Montreal pitching. Also drove in 15 runs vs. the Reds.

CAREER: On the all-time Atlanta doubles list Chambliss is tied for sixth with Dusty Baker (111), just three behind Mike Lum. . . . First grand slam with Atlanta came off L.A.'s Joe Beckwith, Aug. 1, 1982. Had a 14-game hitting streak that year, his longest as a Brave. His career best is 19 games, from April 13 thru May 11, 1976. . . . Until 1983 Chambliss rarely missed a game. In his first three N.L. seasons he sat out just nine games. In 1980 he tied Ed Konetchy's all-time Braves record by playing 158 games at first base. . . . In 1981 Chris tied the Braves' fielding mark by a first baseman. His .997 percentage (4 errors) tied the mark previously held by Walter Holke (1921) and Joe Adcock (1962). . . . Chris' 37 doubles in 1980 tied the Atlanta record set by Hank Aaron in 1967. . . . The December, 1979 trade which sent Chambliss to the Braves was his second in little more than a month. He was traded from the Yankees to Toronto with pitcher Paul Mirabella and infielder Damasco Garcia for pitcher Tom Underwood, catcher Rick Cerone and outfielder Ted Wilborn on Nov. 1, 1979. . . . Originally Chris was Cleveland's No. 1 pick in the January, 1970 free agent draft. . . . Was traded to the Yankees with pitchers Dick Tidrow and Cecil Upshaw in exchange for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey on April 26, 1974. . . . Few people will forget Chris' homer to beat the Royals in the ninth inning of the 1976 American League playoffs. He lists that as his greatest thrill as a ballplayer. . . . Finished fifth in the MVP voting in 1976. . . . Was named Rookie of the Year in the A.L. in 1971 after only one full year in the minors. . . . Batted .342 his first season at Wichita, making him the first rookie to win a Triple-A batting title. . . . Won Gold Glove Award for fielding with Yankees in 1978, committing just four errors in 1481 total chances, a .997 fielding percentage which tied him with Joe Pepitone for all-time Yankee first baseman single season mark. . . . Had a two-run single to beat the White Sox in his first major league start.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Played just one season at UCLA, where he set school records with 15 HRs and 45 RBIs. . . . Previously played baseball and football at Mira Costa Junior College where he was all-league in each sport. Played fullback for the football team. . . . With Oceanside High School was all-league shortstop as a junior and all-league first baseman as a senior. Was also all-league in football and lettered in basketball. . . . Chris is the son of a Navy chaplain, who traveled much of his youth. His father is currently a captain and head chaplain in the U.S. Navy. . . . Chris was a member of the Air National Guard. . . . Is a cousin of former Celtics' basketball star Jo Jo White. . . . Collects phonograph records. . . . Favorite food is swordfish.

KEN DAYLEY

Kenneth Grant Dayley, II. Born Feb. 25, 1959 at Jerome, Ida. Bats, throws left. 6-0, 171. Graduated from The Dalles (Ore.) High School, 1977, attended University of Portland. Married Jill Pilakowski, has two daughters, Sara Jill and Ashley Nicole. Lives in Portland, OR. Acquired — Signed after selection in first round of 1980 June draft by Bill Wight and Charlie Silvers.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 1 year, 50 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 1 year, thru 1984.

1983 SEASON: Ken proved in 1983 that he is on the verge of becoming a solid major league pitcher. At times he showed flashes of the talent that made him Atlanta's No. 1 choice in the 1980 June draft. At triple-A Richmond Dayley won his first five decisions, giving him nine in a row with that club, going back to 1982. After losing three decisions he won his next four starts to earn a recall to Atlanta. The final four wins were complete games and included a four-hit shutout in Ken's final start. . . Dayley started strongly after being brought back to the majors. The Braves won three of his first four decisions, during which Dayley earned a 2-0 record. In his second start, at Cincinnati, Dayley carried a shutout into the ninth inning before tiring. Despite allowing five runs, he turned in his finest big league effort, striking out nine Reds batters. . . Plagued by inconsistency, Dayley was moved to the bullpen where he experienced moderate success. In late August he pitched four consecutive scoreless outings of relief, totaling 9-31/3 innings. . . Dayley also pitched well in his final two starts, made during the final week of the season. Although he got the loss at Houston on Sept. 28, Dayley gave up just three runs in 7-1/3 innings. On the final day of the season, Dayley recorded his fifth win as he held San Diego to two earned runs in seven innings.

CAREER: Dayley's winning percentage at Richmond, .682 (30-14) is tops in that club's history among pitchers with 15 or more wins. . . His overall minor league record is 38-17 in 74 starts. . . After college Dayley went directly to double-A where he fashioned an 8-3 record with a 2.57 ERA and 104 strikeouts in 105 innings.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Played baseball and basketball at University of Portland. Was named to The Sporting News All-American Team in 1980. . . In high school lettered in baseball, basketball and football. Junior year was voted Most Inspirational Player and senior year was Most Valuable Player. Both awards in recognition for basketball ability.

PETE FALCONE

P NO. 33

Peter Falcone. Born Oct. 1, 1953 at Brooklyn, N.Y. Bats, throws left. 6-2. 205. Graduated from Lafayette (Brooklyn) High School. Attended Kingsborough Community College (Bayside, N.Y.). Married Diane Rich, has one daughter, Anna Christi. Lives in Roslyn Heights, N.Y. Acquired — Signed on Jan. 25, 1983 after selection in 1982 re-entry draft.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 8 years, 151 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 2 years, thru 1984.

1983 SEASON: Falcone began and ended 1983 in the bullpen, but it was during the middle portion, when he was used primarily as a starter, that he made his mark, as he won seven straight decisions... Pete earned his first victory in an Atlanta uniform on April 9 after pitching 4-2/3 innings of scoreless relief... He made his first start on May 23 vs. Pittsburgh after going 1-1 with a 2.45 ERA in 10 relief outings. Falcone got the win in that start as he allowed the Bucs just two earned runs on two homers... He did not lose again until Aug. 18, a stretch of more than three months... Atlanta won Falcone's first 10 starts, of which he received the decision in six. The relief outing in that stretch in which Falcone earned the win was an important one, a July 4 victory to move the Braves back into first place at the all-star break... Included in Pete's win streak were back-to-back complete game victories on June 20 and 25. In the former, at Houston, Falcone pitched a four-hitter, allowing just one run. In the latter, at Cincinnati, allowed just five hits and two runs while striking out 10. That strikeout performance, later tied by Pascual Perez, was high by a Brave in '83, and tops by an Atlanta pitcher since July 14, 1980, when Phil Niekro struck out 11... Pete's seven-game win streak was the longest by a Braves pitcher in 1983... He recorded his most wins since 1976 when he went 12-16 at St. Louis... In 1983 Falcone was 7-2 in 15 outings as a starter. Atlanta won 12 of those games... He was 6-1 at home and 3-3 on the road.

CAREER: Falcone also pitched for Braves manager Joe Torre when both were with the Mets...Pete got off to a great start in 1981, pitching out of the bullpen. He allowed no runs in his first 10 relief appearances, with 28 strikeouts in 24 innings...Was later moved to the starting rotation where he had three complete game victories the last two weeks of the season...Came up in the San Francisco organization and was 12-11 as a rookie with the Giants in 1975...Beat the Braves, 4-2, in first major league start in second game of an April 13 doubleheader. No-hit Braves for six innings May 6, 1975, before Dusty Baker led off seventh with a single...Traded to St. Louis for infielder Ken Reitz, Dec. 8, 1975...Then went to New York on Dec. 5, 1978, for outfielder Tom Grieve and pitcher Kim Seaman...On May 1, 1980 vs. Philadelphia, matched major league record by striking out first six batters he faced (Smith, Rose, Maddox, Schmidt, Luzinski and Boone). Was only the fifth pitcher to start a game with six strikeouts (Tigers' John Hiller, 1968; Red Sox' Ray Culp and Twins' Bert Blyleven, 1970 and the Dodgers' Andy Messersmith, 1973).

PERSONAL/MISC.: Is second cousin of Braves' bullpen coach Joe Pignatano, Piggy and Pete's father are cousins...Named to National Junior College All-American team with Kingsborough (Bayside, N.Y.) Junior College in 1973.

TERRY FORSTER

P NO. 51

Terry Jay Forster. Born Jan. 14, 1952, at Sioux Falls, S.D. Bats, throws left. 6-4, 220. Graduated from Santana (San Diego) High School, attended Grossmont (San Diego) Junior College and San Diego State. Married Pamela Gail Sherley, has two children, Kimberly and Andrea. Lives in Dunwoody, Ga. Acquired — Signed on Dec. 1, 1982, after selection in 1982 re-entry draft.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 13 years.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 3 years, thru 1985.

1983 SEASON: The addition of free agent Terry Forster prior to the 1983 season proved to be an important one for the Braves. He turned in his best season since 1978, recording his lowest ERA (2.16) and most saves (13) since then. Although not qualifying for the ERA title because of a lack of innings, Forster had the lowest mark on the Braves' staff and sixth lowest among N.L. pitchers with 75 or more innings. ... Terry ranked second on the club in saves and tied Gene Garber for second in games finished (29). ... He started the season strong, not giving up a run in his first nine relief appearances. He allowed just four hits in that span, covering nine innings, while earning four saves. ... After being touched for two runs in his 10th outing, Forster rattled off nine more appearances without allowing a run, a string of 14-2/3 innings. Through June 1 he had worked 19 games, sported a 1-0 record, with six saves and a 0.70 ERA.

Forster allowed only three homers in 1983. The first did not come until June 28, his 27th outing, when Dickie Thon hit one out. All three opponents' homers came in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. ... In 1983 Forster recorded three saves vs. St. Louis and two each vs. Chicago, Houston and Philadelphia. He did not allow a run against Chicago, Montreal, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and San Diego. ... Takes pride in his hitting. Got hits first three times batting in Braves' uniform.

CAREER: Ironically, Terry served up the home run to S.F.'s Joe Morgan which beat L.A. on last day of 1982 season to give Braves N.L. West Division crown. ... Signed with Braves because he wanted to be with a team which "would be involved in the World Series the next three seasons". ... Ranks 14th all-time and eighth among active pitchers with 116 career saves. ... Has returned from elbow surgery (bone chips, bone spur and relocated nerve) to pitch effectively. ... Also suffered freak accident as youngster when someone fell on him while hiking in the Grand Canyon. Suffered a broken back in freak mishap. ... Was American League Fireman of the Year in 1974 when he recorded 24 saves and seven wins for Chicago White Sox. ... Set White Sox mark with 20 saves in 1972. ... Pitched 138-1/3 innings from 1971 to 1973 without allowing a home run. ... Has allowed just 41 homers in 978 innings, a ratio of one home run for every 23-2/3 innings. ... Spent only one season in minors, 1970 with Appleton, Class A ball. ... Traded by White Sox to Pittsburgh with Rich Gossage for Richie Zisk and Silvio Martinez. ... Signed with Pirates in 1977 re-entry draft and was first free agent ever signed by Dodgers. Is one of few players to go through free agent draft twice.

PERSONAL/MISC.: At Santana (San Diego) High School played basketball with Bill Walton and football with Brian Sipe. ... Greatest thrill as ballplayer was winning the World Series with Los Angeles in 1981. Also played in 1978 fall classic. ... Favorite food is Mexican. ... Favorite books are "Rage of Angles" and "Centennial". Plans following baseball career include "travel the world".

GENE GARBER

P NO. 26

Henry Eugene Garber. Born Nov. 13, 1947 at Lancaster, Pa. Bats, throws right. 5-10, 172. Graduated from Elizabethtown, Pa., High School, 1965, and Elizabethtown College, 1969. Married Karen Frey, has two children, Gregory Alan and Michael Todd. Acquired — Contract obtained from Philadelphia in exchange for that of Dick Ruthven, June 15, 1978.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 11 years, 74 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: Three years, thru 1986, plus option for 1987.

1983 SEASON: Gene was having a typically good season until arm miseries struck in June. He did not give up a run in his first five outings while going 1-0 with three saves. On June 4 he had pitched in 16 games while recording a 2.21 ERA. Garber pitched most of that month in pain and was disabled on June 25. Came back a month later and did not give up a run in his first five appearances covering nine innings. Finished the season third on the club with nine saves and tied Terry Forster for second with 29 games finished.

CAREER: Geno is Atlanta's all-time leader in saves. He holds the single season mark (30) set in 1982 and the career mark (95)... Among major leaguers he ranks 7th all-time and 5th actively with 158 career saves... Had perhaps his best season in 1982 when he led the Braves to the Rolaids Relief Man Award for top team bullpen. His 56 games finished that year set an Atlanta record. He finished in a tie for second in saves, ranked fourth in games finished and eighth in games (69). Was recognized for his outstanding season when he tied for seventh in the annual Cy Young award voting... If he had logged enough innings Garber's 2.34 ERA would have led the league... Recorded 22 saves with Braves in 1978 after coming to Atlanta in mid-June trade which sent Dick Ruthven to Philadelphia... Later that year combined with Larry McWilliams to stop Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Struck out Rose in his last at-bat... Has been particularly tough against old team, is 2-1, with 1.03 ERA against the Phillies... Garber is 10-5, 2.30 ERA vs. L.A. and 10-4, 1.75 ERA vs. N.Y... Geno is characterized by his sidewinding style: "I tried it once in the International League, it worked, and I stuck with it," he explains.

TERRY HARPER

OF NO. 19

Terry J. Harper. Born Aug. 19, 1955, at Douglasville, Ga. Bats, throws right, 6-1, 202. Graduated from Douglas County (Douglasville) High School, 1973. Single. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired — Signed after selection in June, 1973 draft by Red Wooten.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 2 years, 137 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 1 year, thru 1984.

1983 SEASON: Terry saw his most extensive playing time with Atlanta in 1983, nearly equaling his previous major league totals in the process. Has now seen action in Atlanta's outfield for parts of four different seasons. Harper was optioned to Richmond in August but was recalled three days later because of injury to Horner, thus did not actually report to minor league club... Began season as fourth outfielder, but in his first game of 1983 (Braves' sixth) helped beat San Diego with homer and single for game-winning RBI... Had an eight-game hitting streak in May to tie his career best... Twice drove in four runs in a game: May 15 at Houston and June 4 vs. St. Louis in Atlanta... Batted .302 on the road, .353 vs. San Francisco and .316 against St. Louis in 1983... Had first four-hit game of career June 17 at San Francisco (three singles and a triple).

CAREER: Terry had a big hand in Atlanta's stretch drive to win 1982 West Division title. Was Braves' starting left fielder during final two weeks of season when Bob Horner was injured. In final 12 games hit .326 with two homers and eight RBIs. Those home runs were the only two he hit in an Atlanta uniform in 1982... Harper started that season at AAA Richmond but was recalled at end of May after hitting .384 with nine homers and 42 RBIs in just 37 games. Was named Braves Minor League Player of the Month for both April and May. Played in only 48 games the rest of season due to two odd injuries. After May recall only played two games before breaking right thumb sliding into second base with double. Came back after a month and was almost immediately struck again by injury. Had five hits in three games, then three games later suffered a separated shoulder while standing near home plate and waving a runner on... First major league hit was a triple off San Diego's Rick Wise, Sept. 13, 1980, in second big league game... First major league homer came in pinch-hitting role off San Diego's John Curtis, May 24, 1981... Originally signed by Braves as a pitcher in 1973 but was converted to an everyday player in 1976... Had 34 stolen bases for Richmond in 1980... Has 20 thefts in limited action as big leaguer.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Raised in Douglasville, Ga., just 30 minutes from Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium... Works in Braves' Speakers Bureau in off-season, making appearances throughout Atlanta and the Southeast.

HARPER'S BEST

Longest hitting streak: 8 games (twice, latest May 10-18, 1983)

Most hits, game: 4 (June 17, 1983 at San Francisco)

Most RBIs, game: 4 (twice, latest June 4, 1983 vs. St. Louis)

1984 BRAVES' TELEVISION AND RADIO

The Atlanta Braves, WTBS-TV and WCNN radio join together in 1984 to give Braves' fans the best in big league baseball broadcasting. WTBS will televise 150 games including 71 regular season road games, 74 home games, and five spring training games. WTBS carries "America's Team" into all 50 states in the U.S., Puerto Rico and a Caribbean circuit amounting to nearly 30 million homes.

WCNN, as the flagship station, heads a radio network which includes over 100 stations across the Southeast. The network reaches into Alabama, Florida, North and South Carolina and Tennessee as well as covering Georgia. It is one of the largest networks in professional sports.

Ernie Johnson, Pete Van Wieren, Skip Caray and John Sterling are the broadcasters again in 1984. Johnson, the Braves' director of Broadcasting, has played and worked in the organization for over 35 years. Van Wieren and Caray are in their ninth year as voices of the Braves and Sterling begins his second season in 1984.

BOB HORNER

INF NO. 5

James Robert Horner. Born Aug. 6, 1957 at Junction City, Kan. Bats, throws right. 6-1, 210. Graduated from Apollo (Ariz.) High School, attended Arizona State University. Married Christine Berry, has two sons. Lives in Dunwoody, Ga. Acquired — Signed after selection as nation's No. 1 pick in June, 1978 draft by Tom Morgan.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 5 years, 108 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: Four years, thru 1986.

1983 SEASON: Bob was having his top all around season until felled by broken bone in right wrist on Aug. 15. Despite having to sit out final seven weeks because of that injury, and 10 days in June because of an injured ankle, Horner hit 20 homers and had 10 game-winning RBIs. Both figures tied for second on the Braves in 1983, remarkable considering the fact that he missed one third of the season. . . Horner's .303 average was his highest since 1979, his sophomore year as a pro, when he batted .314. . . He also led Atlanta and set a personal high with 25 doubles in 1983. . . Five of Horner's first 14 hits last year were home runs. Through the first week of May he had seven roundtrippers. . . Only once did he hit two in the same game, on July 24 vs. Philadelphia. . . Bob was the N.L.'s Player of the Week for May 23-29 when he batted .464 with seven RBIs, six runs and six doubles. . . Had three 10-game hitting streaks in 1983, one each in May, July and August. . . Had four hits in game at San Francisco, Aug. 3. . . Hit .329 at home, .317 vs. lefthanders and .296 against righthanders. . . Four homers and 11 RBIs came against Philadelphia. Hit three homers each vs. Los Angeles and San Francisco. Batted .455 against Pirates and .425 vs. Giants. . . Among N.L. third basemen playing in 100 or more games Horner tied for third in fielding percentage (.958) with Bill Madlock, behind Ken Oberkfell (.960) and Mike Schmidt (.959).

CAREER: Ranks third behind Hank Aaron and Dale Murphy on the all-time Atlanta home run list with 158. Needs just 12 homers to tie Del Crandall for 5th place on the all-time Braves' list. (Murphy ranks 6th with 164.)... Led the Braves in home runs for four years from 1978-81... Hit 100th career homer off Houston's Nolan Ryan, Sept. 9, 1981... Finished second in the league in homers (behind Mike Schmidt) with 35 in 1980. Teammate Murphy finished third with 33, marking the first time that two N.L. players from the same team finished in the top three in homers since the Braves' Davey Johnson and Darrell Evans accomplished the feat in 1973... Horner has hit 22 career homers off San Francisco pitching, 18 against Cincinnati and Houston... Has hit two homers in a game 18 times... In 1980 Bob was named N.L.'s Player of the Month of July when he hit 14 home runs and had 33 RBIs. His 14 homers in July fell one short of the major league record for that month shared by Joe Adcock, Hank Greenberg and Joe DiMaggio... Hit six home runs in five games from Sept. 29 thru Oct. 3, 1981, just one short of the National League mark held by Jim Bottomley, Johnny Bench and Mike Schmidt. Was named Player of the Week in the N.L. for the feat... In 1979 and 1980 Bob drove in runs in eight consecutive games to tie a Braves' record previously set by Eddie Mathews and tied twice by Hank Aaron... Bob finished fifth in the N.L. with a .314 average in 1979. His 20-game hitting streak was second longest in the league that year... Was named Rookie of the Year in 1978 by The Sporting News and the Baseball Writers Association of America... In first pro game hit a homer after being chosen as nation's No. 1 draft pick off Arizona State University campus. Homer came off Pittsburgh's Bert Blyleven, June 16, 1978, at Atlanta Stadium. Horner had one other hit, a single, in debut... Braves had planned to start Horner at AA Savannah following draft, but he talked them into staying with parent club... Set an Atlanta record with nine sacrifice flies that year... Bob was named to the N.L. all-star team for first time in '82... Had five-hit game in game at San Francisco (2 doubles, 3 singles) that year.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Bob hit NCAA record 25 home runs at Arizona State... Was College World Series MVP in 1977... Was College All-American in 1977 and 1978 and College Player of the Year in 1978... In high school was all-state in baseball and lettered in basketball... One of manager Joe Torre's first official acts was to name Horner team captain. Aids Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Won four consecutive decisions in July, then went nine starts without being credited with a victory. Righted himself with third and final shutout of season, a four-hitter over San Diego, Sept. 16. McMurtry won his next two starts to finish season with three consecutive wins... Did not allow a home run in last 44 innings of 1983 season... Was 8-3, 2.63 ERA at home and 7-6, 3.60 ERA on the road. Paced Richmond in earned run average, starts, complete games and innings... Set a Richmond record for most wins in a season... Had 39-24 record for three minor league seasons... DALE MURPHY

Dale Bryan Murphy. Born March 12, 1956 at Portland, Ore. Bats, throws right. 6-5, 215. Graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School, Portland, 1974. Attended Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. Married Nancy Thomas, has three sons, Chad, Travis Jay and Shawn. Lives in Lawrenceville. Acquired — Signed after selection in first round of June, 1974 draft by Bill Wight.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 6 years, 46 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 5 years, thru 1987.

1983 SEASON: Dale moved into prominence as one of the great players in this era when he was named the National League's Most Valuable Player for the second year in a row by The Baseball Writers Association of America and The Sporting News. At age 27 he became the youngest National Leaguer to be honored in back-to-back years by the BBWAA

(Ernie Banks, Joe Morgan and Mike Schmidt also won back-to-back awards.) Murphy is the only two-time winner of the award in Braves history and fourth over all. Hank Aaron in 1957, Bob Elliott in 1947 and Johnny Evers in 1914 are other Braves to be honored. Murphy received 21 of the 24 first place votes, 318 over all, for a wide margin over runner-up Andre Dawson, and Mike Schmidt and Pedro Guerrero who finished third and fourth respectively. In winning the award a second time Murphy improved on his first MVP season in almost every statistical category. He led the N.L. in RBIs (121), and slugging percentage (.540), while finishing second in homers (36), and runs scored (131). He ranked in the top six in batting average, .302; hits, 178; on-base percentage, .393; walks, 90, and game-winning RBIs, 14. Murphy also stole 30 bases to become the second Brave (fourth in N.L. history and sixth ever in the majors) to join the 30-30 Club (homers and stolen bases). He, along with Tim Lincecum, was the first player in the league to score 131 runs in a season since Bobby Bonds in 1973. He was the only player in the league to play in all 162 games in 1983 and has played in 333 straight, second longest on-going streak in the majors behind Toronto's Alfredo Griffin (347)... Murphy was the only unanimous choice in the first annual selection of the UPI all-star team, was one vote shy of a unanimous selection on the AP all-star team and was named to The Sporting News All-Star Team... He won the Gold Glove Award for fielding excellence and the Louisville Slugger's Silver Stick award as the top hitter at his outfield position. Even the fans rank Murphy number one. He was the top vote-getter among National Leaguers for the Major League All-Star Game. Had an RBI single in the game... Was named the N.L.'s Player of the Month for September and Player of the Week for August 29-Sept. 4... Batted .327 with runners in scoring position. .322 vs. righthanded pitching and .340 at home. Dale hit 17 home runs at home, 19 on the road. Seventeen were hit to right field, 10 to center and nine to left. Eleven of his homers, almost one third of his season total, came off San Francisco pitching. Murphy also drove in 23 runs (including four game-winners) against the Giants while batting .355. Hit at least one homer off each N.L. opponent. Hit two homers in a game six times: April 20 vs. N.Y., June 12 vs. S.F., Aug. 11 vs. S.F., Sept. 4 vs. Pittsburgh, Sept. 8 vs. S.F. and Sept. 14 vs. Cincinnati. Drove in five runs during game with Giants, Aug. 11... Tied N.L. record with five walks in game vs. N.Y., April 22... Longest hitting streak was nine games, but Murphy never went more than three games in succession without a hit and that happened only once.

CAREER: In just six seasons Dale has compiled career batting figures which are exceeded by only one other Atlanta player, Hall of Famer Hank Aaron. Only "The Hammer" scored more runs, hit more homers and drove in more runs than Murphy, and he played three more seasons in an Atlanta uniform. In the all-time Atlanta top five in batting, (although Murphy ranks only fourth in games (876) and third in at-bats (3180), he is second in runs (512), homers (164), RBIs (528), total bases (1507) and extra base hits (300). Dale also ranks third in stolen bases (93), walks (373) and doubles (121), fourth in hits (864) and fifth in slugging percentage (.474). Additionally, Murphy needs just six more homers to tie Del Crandall for fifth place on the all-time Braves home run list behind Aaron, Eddie Mathews, Joe Adcock and Wally Berger... Murphy has gathered more honors than any Atlanta Brave except Aaron. In 1982 and 1983 the 27-year-old received 13 post-season honors, ranging from the prestigious MVP to various all-star teams and fielding and hitting awards. Both years he was named MVP by the BBWAA, N.L. Player of the Year by The Sporting News, to the Associated Press All-Star team, won the Gold Glove, and Silver Stick Awards. Additionally, he was named to the United Press International All-Star team in 1983, the first year of its existence. He was voted to the N.L. All-Star Game squad in 1982 and 1983 and was named as a reserve in 1980... In 1982 Murphy led the Braves to the N.L. West Division title. He tied Montreal's Al Oliver for the

N.L. lead in RBIs (109), ranked second in homers (36) and runs (113); fourth in walks (93); seventh in slugging percentage (.507), tied for 9th in game-winning RBIs (14) and finished 10th in on-base percentage (.378). Also stole 23 bases. In 1982 became the only Braves player besides Felix Millan in 1969 to play 162 games in a season... Was named N.L.'s Player of the Month of April, 1982, and August, 1980, and Player of the Week for June 7-13, 1982, and Co-Player of the Week with Dave Kingman for May 13-20, 1979... Hit back-to-back homers with Bob Horner on consecutive nights against Chicago, April 28 & 29, 1982, both in the eighth inning... On May 18, 1979, Dale became the first Brave to hit three homers in a game since Mike Lum turned the trick in 1970... In 1980 Murphy finished third in the league in homers behind Horner and HR champ Mike Schmidt. It was the first time in the N.L. that two players on the same team finished in the top three in homers since the Braves' Davey Johnson and Darrell Evans in 1973. Has remarkable speed for a man his size. Stole two bases in an inning twice (June 15 and July 16, 1982) to tie an Atlanta record. Only Jerry Royster on the Braves has swiped two bases in a game twice in his career... Signed by Braves as one of the most highly touted catching prospects in the nation in 1974. Was fifth player chosen in first round. Murphy played behind the plate throughout minor league career. Plagued by wild throwing arm, he was moved to first base and the outfield after reaching the big leagues. It was at the latter where he found a home. Ironically, his strong, accurate throwing arm is now one of his biggest assets as an outfielder. In first two seasons in outfield, Murphy ranked high in assists and double plays. Since reputation has grown, few runners attempt to take a base on him.

PERSONAL/MISC: Bats, throws righthanded but writes, eats lefthanded. "I don't know how it happened... It just worked out that way," Murphy says... Very active in charitable causes in spare time, including Cystic Fibrosis and Huntington's Disease... Was named all-state, all-city and most valuable player in school district his senior season at Woodrow Wilson High in Portland.

PASCUAL PEREZ

P NO. 27

Pascual Gross Perez. Born May 17, 1957, at Haina, Dominican Republic. Bats, throws right. 6-2, 163. Wife's name Maritza, has one child, Pascual, Jr. Lives in Santiago, D.R. Acquired — Obtained from Pittsburgh for contract of Larry McWilliams, June 29, 1982.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 2 year, 87 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 1 year, thru 1984.

1983 SEASON: Pascual burst from the gate in 1983 en route to winning 15 games. Win total tied Craig McMurtry for high on the Braves' staff and was the most by an Atlanta pitcher other than Phil Niekro since Carl Morton went 17-16 in 1975. Only five N.L. pitchers won more games. Additionally, Perez', 652 winning percentage tied for second in the league behind John Denny. He led the Braves with seven complete games and 144 strikeouts, tied for second in games started (33), and ranked second in innings (215-1/3). Pascual won his first five starts of 1983 and compiled a 1.66 ERA in that time. Coupled with his four victories to end the 1982 season, Pascual's nine consecutive wins tied the Atlanta record Buzz Capra set in 1974... Pascual's first start of 1983 was a seven-hitter over Cincinnati on April 6. Five days later he tossed his first major league shutout, a five-hitter over San Diego. Was named N.L. Pitcher of the Month for April for his great start. Perez did not suffer his first loss until May 17 when Chicago edged the Braves, 4-3. He won his next three decisions and stood 12-2 on July 29... Perez was named to the National League All-Star Game squad for the first time and was the first Atlanta pitcher other than Phil Niekro to be so honored since Dick Ruthven in 1976... Pascual went nine starts without a win from Aug. 12 thru Sept. 18, despite good pitching performances. Closed out the season with back-to-back complete game victories Sept. 24 and 28. The final game was one of his finest of the season, a four-hitter in which Perez struck out a career high 10 while allowing just one run. He said afterward "the win was for my mother. I promised her I would win 15." Perez was 8-2 at home and 3-0 vs. N.L. champion Philadelphia.

CAREER: Came to Braves in trade with Pittsburgh for Larry McWilliams, June 29, 1982. Reported to Richmond where he won all five starts, pitching two shutouts and recording a 1.26 ERA. Was called up to Atlanta, and it was his addition which led indirectly, if not directly, to Atlanta's winning the division title. On the field he helped solidify the Braves pitching staff. He pitched as a starter and in relief and added both poise and confidence while winning four key games... But it was what he did off the field that etched his name permanently in the memories of Atlantans and baseball followers everywhere. The Braves had lost 19 of 21 games and had scheduled Perez to start against Montreal on Aug. 19. Perez passed his driver's exam that morning and drove to Atlanta Stadium by himself for the first time after receiving directions from fellow Latinos, Rafael Ramirez and Rufino Linares. Perez got lost and circled I-285, the interstate around Atlanta, three times, running out of gas in the process. With his limited English he finally found his way to the stadium 10 minutes after game time. Phil Niekro started in his absence and the Braves were victorious. With tensions relieved the Braves won six in a row and 13 of 15 to move back into first place... Lost first four games with Braves and overall had a personal 11-game losing streak... Pascual received starting assignment in Braves' first official playoff game at St. Louis (first game was rained out after 4-2/3 innings with Phil Niekro on the mound)... GERALD PERRY

INF NO. 28

Gerald J. Perry. Born Oct. 30, 1960, at Savannah, Ga. Bats left, throws right. 5-11, 190. Graduated from H.E. McCracken (Bluffton, S.C.) High School, 1978. Single. Lives in Hilton Head, S.C. Acquired — Signed after selection in 1978 June draft by Bill Lucas.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 54 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 1 year, thru 1984.

1983 SEASON: If anyone doubted Gerald Perry was ready for the big leagues after two outstanding seasons at Richmond, the youngster quickly proved them wrong after his recall in mid-August. Perry doubled off Bill Laskey in his first major league at-bat, Aug. 11. He hit safely in his first three games, including a pinch-hit appearance, and in eight of his first nine. Just 11 days after being brought up from the minor leagues for the first time, Perry was named the N.L.'s Player of the Week for Aug. 15-21. He hit .400 in that span with a homer and six RBIs. The home run, his first, came off Chuck Rainey, Aug. 19... Was used primarily as a pinch-hitter and had seven hits in 16 at-bats in that role for a .438 average. Ranked fourth on the Braves in pinch-hits while playing less than two months. If he had gotten enough at-bats (25 to qualify) he would have led N.L. pinch-hitters in average... Came up from minors as first baseman but played one game in left field for Atlanta, the position he will be given a chance to win in spring training... Was International League's all-star first baseman... Became one of three Richmond Braves to ever hit for cycle on May 12, 1983, vs. Tidewater... Batting average did not fall below .300 after May 27.

CAREER: Was named "Braves Bill Lucas Minor League Player of the Year" for 1982 in poll among top Braves baseball executives. Ironically, Perry was last player signed by Lucas, the late Braves General Manager... Helped lead AAA Richmond to first International League pennant in 15 years in 1982... In less than two seasons at Richmond ranks fifth all-time with 65 stolen bases, including 39 in 1982. Is also sixth leading hitter with .305 career average... Was Western Carolinas League batting champion with .333 average in 1979.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Gerald is the nephew of Cincinnati Reds first baseman Dan Driessen... Was named Most Community Minded Richmond Brave in 1983.

JERRY ROYSTER

INF-OF NO. 1

Jeron Kennis Royster. Born Oct. 18, 1952, at Sacramento, Calif. Bats, throws right. 6-0, 165. Graduated from Sacramento High School, 1970. Attended Healds Business College. Married Kathy Steele. Has one daughter, Kristie Marie. Lives in Alpharetta, Ga. Acquired — Obtained with Jim Wynn, Lee Lacy and Tom Paciorek from Los Angeles Dodgers in exchange for Dusty Baker and Ed Goodson, Dec. 12, 1975.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 8 years, 109 days.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 6 years, thru 1984.

1983 SEASON: Had what he would be the first to call a disappointing season in 1983. Was used sparingly, playing in reserve at second and third base, shortstop and left field. Was to replace Bob Horner who suffered a broken wrist on Aug. 15 but Royster went down with an injured ankle just three days later. Missed three weeks because of the injury. . . Nevertheless showed flashes of brilliance at times. Had nine RBIs in five games July 13-19, including two of the game-winning variety. The first, on July 13, was a squeeze bunt to score the go ahead run in the eighth inning.

CAREER: Royster ranks as Atlanta's all-time career stolen base king. Moved past Ralph Garr's former club record of 137 in 1981. Career record now stands at 151. Tied Garr's mark with his first theft of the season, May 7, 1981, at St. Louis. Broke the mark moments later when he swiped third. . . Also tied Garr for the Atlanta single season mark of 35 in 1979, until broken by Brett Butler in 1983. . . Was considered by some to be Braves' MVP for heroics during final two months of 1982. Jerry was used sparingly throughout the first four months but was a catalyst in Braves' stretch drive to win division title. . . Had earned regular left field job but also filled in at second base and shortstop and took over for the injured Bob Horner at third base the final two weeks of the season. His 17-game hitting streak from Aug. 4-27 was longest by a Brave that year and set a personal high. . . Has twice tied an Atlanta record by stealing two bases in an inning, May 7, 1981, and Aug. 22, 1982. . . Led Braves in stolen bases from 1976-80. . . Led the Pacific Coast League with .333 average in 1975.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Four-sport athlete in high school. Lettered in baseball, basketball, football and track.

Instead of the game being over, only the baserunner (Sinatro) was ruled out and the Braves went on to score two runs to come from behind to win the game... First major league hit was an RBI single off Houston's Joe Niekro, Sept. 23, 1981. First big league homer was off New York's Pete Falcone with family and friends in the stands.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Brother Greg played in Cincinnati Reds organization... Matt lettered in football, basketball and baseball, in prep career.

MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACT STATUS: 5 years, thru 1985.

1983 SEASON: Washington in 1983 had a disappointing year by some standards, yet batted .278 while scoring 75 runs and stealing 31 bases. Had off year in power and production, hitting just nine homers and driving home 44 runs. His eight triples tied for seventh in the league, however, ... Had two four-hit games, April 26 vs. Phillies and May 31 vs. Pirates. ... Closed out season with eight-game hitting streak and had two game-winning RBIs in last 10 days of season. ... Hit .329 at home and .415 vs. N.L. champion Philadelphia. Also batted .367 against San Diego and .324 vs. St. Louis in 1983. ... Stole five bases each against Astros, Phillies and Pirates.

CAREER: Had his best big league season in 1982 in helping lead the Braves to division title. At no time was the value of free-agent acquisition Washington more evident than the final month of that campaign. A veteran with experience on LCS and World Series teams in Oakland, Claudell responded under pressure to help a young Braves team keep an even keel. Was named the N.L.'s Player of the Month for September because of his play down the stretch. Also provided incentive to teammates on a West Coast road trip when he invited them to come to his home to view his World Series trophy. He told his fellow Braves this is what you're playing for. ... Led Braves in '82 with 33 stolen bases and six triples. Tied Dale Murphy for club leadership in game-winning RBIs and finished second in runs. Hit career high 16 homers, including two in game Aug. 28 at New York. ... Stole three bases in game vs. S.F. Sept. 28. ... Had second five hit game of career vs. L.A. Sept. 8, 1982. First was with Oakland in 1974. ... Had three game-winning RBIs during 13-game winning streak at start of Braves '82 season, including a two-run, ninth inning single in win No. 13... Doubled his first time up in Braves uniform as leadoff batter, Opening Night, April 10, 1981, and later scored... Led Braves with .291 average that year... A good defensive outfielder who had 12 assists in only 70 games that year. Tied three N.Y. records; hit three homers in game at Los Angeles on June 21; three doubles in game vs. Braves, July 30 and had RBIs in seven consecutive games in July... Also hit three home runs in game with White Sox, July 14, 1979. Only Babe Ruth and Johnny Mize previously had three-homer games in both leagues... Was named to the Topps Major League Rookie team in 1974, in just third professional season... Played on American League All-Star team in 1976.

PERSONAL/MISC: Signed by Oakland during Charlie Finley's regime off Berkeley sandlots following graduation from Berkeley High School. Ran on track team but did not play baseball in his school and was scouted while playing Connie Mack ball. Became regular outfielder with Oakland at age 19 in 1974 after just one-half season in double-A and 141 games in Class A.

RUFINO LINARES

OF NO. 25

Rufino Linares. Born Feb. 28, 1951, at San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic. Bats, throws right, 6-1, 165. Graduated from Qulsqueya [D.R.] High School. Married. Lives in San Pedro de Macoris. Acquired — Signed as free agent by Napoleon Reyes.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 2 years, 134 days.

1983 SEASON: Rufino missed the entire 1983 major league season after severely breaking left ankle playing winter ball in Nov., 1982. After rehabilitation was sent to Richmond where he hit just .224 in 29 games. Disappointed in the fate of their outfielder, Atlanta outrighted Linares to Richmond at the end of the season after considering his release. Linares went back to winter ball and experienced an amazing recovery. Was named the league's most valuable player. Braves' Director of Scouting Paul Snyder, on a trip to the Dominican, saw Linares beat out a ground ball hit into the hole at shortstop. "When I saw him do that I knew he had recovered," Snyder said. Injury was so severe Linares had to come to Atlanta to have the ankle reset and reinforced with pins (in Jan., 1983). Is expected to contend for vacant left field spot.

CAREER: Was named to Topps All-Rookie Team in 1981. Was long shot to make the Atlanta squad at spring training that year despite averaging .373 for two Braves farm teams the year before. When asked about his chances of making the big league roster Rufino confidently replied "I can hit in any league." He proved it and was Atlanta's starting left fielder on opening night... Hit .265 that year and improved to .298 in 1982 which led all Braves. Tied for club leadership with eight pinch-hits... First big league hit came in second game off Cincinnati's Mike LaCoss, April 11, 1981... First major league home run came against San Francisco's Doyle Alexander, April 17, 1981... Had 10-game hitting streak from Sept. 16-26, 1981... Was named 1981 Outstanding Braves Rookie of Spring Training" by media... Celebrated wedding date, June 19, 1982, by getting three hits and first homer of 1982 that night... If Rufino had gotten enough plate appearances in 1980 he would have led two leagues in hitting. He batted .329 in 63 games at Richmond and .425 in 50 games at Savannah. He hit safely in 47 of the first 51 games he played at Savannah, compiling 27 and 15-game hitting streaks... He was first player in history of Savannah Braves baseball to average over .300 for a full season, hitting .303 there in 1978... Rufino also hit safely in 56 of 63 games at Richmond in 1980. In a total of 114 games in 1980 he hit safely in 103.

PERSONAL/MISC.: From the same home town, San Pedro de Macoris, in the Dominican Republic as teammate Rafael Ramirez.

LINARES' BEST

Longest hitting streak: 10 games (Sept. 16-26, 1981)

Most hits, game: 4 (April 13, 1982 vs. Cincinnati)

Most RBIs game: 4 (May 23, 1981, vs. San Diego)

BRAVES' FARM SYSTEM

The Atlanta Braves' minor league system, one of the most productive in all of baseball, had another successful year in 1983. Braves farm teams recorded an overall .520 winning percentage (362-334), although they did not win any league championships. Outfielder Brad Komminsk was named the International League's Rookie of the Year and Braves minor leaguers dotted the various all-star teams. Komminsk was also named winner of the "Braves Bill Lucas Minor League Player of the Year" award.

Following are the Braves' Minor League Player of the Month winners for the 1983 season.

April:	Carlos Rios, Inf, Savannah and Brad Komminsk, Of, Richmond
May:	John Mortillaro, P, Anderson
June:	Milt Thompson, Of, Savannah
July:	Craig Jones, P, Savannah and Brook Jacoby, Inf, Richmond
August:	Jeff Dedmon, P, Richmond

The Braves in the World Series

1914 — Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 — Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 — Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lou Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 — New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 — New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 76.9 per cent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score 7-4.

1982 — St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a major league record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games. The Cardinals scored five runs in the sixth inning to take the first game at St. Louis, 7-0. In game two the Cardinals expended single runs in the eighth and ninth innings to gain the win. The Braves returned to Atlanta for game three but could fare no better as St. Louis quickly scored four runs in the second inning in a 6-2 win.
